

II. QUESTIONNAIRE ON IMF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE FOR CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONS

Name of Organization _____

Name of Individual Responding _____

Position Within Your Organization _____

Location of Headquarters _____

1. What are the main channels through which you communicate your views and concerns to the IMF Executive Board, Management, and staff? How often do you use these channels?
2. Do you believe existing channels are adequate? How could the IMF facilitate communications with civil society? Do you have any other suggestions to facilitate communication with the IMF?
3. Does the government (or any other authority) in the country in which you operate consult with your organization on matters related to the IMF? If so, how frequently and in what context? If not, does your government communicate with your organization on other issues (i.e., unrelated to the IMF)?
4. Does the Executive Director representing your country on the IMF Executive Board ever communicate with your organization? If so, how frequently and in what context and manner?
5. Are you satisfied with how the Executive Director takes into account the views of civil society in your country? Do you have any suggestions on how this could be improved?
6. Do you think that the IMF's governance structure is adequate to hold the institution accountable to stakeholders for its decisions? How could accountability to stakeholders be enhanced?
7. What other views do you have about how the IMF is managed? Do you have any suggestions on how to improve its governance?